Humanities: The Romans Science: Plants

Talk, think, read, write	Design and create	Let's perform
Science – What plants do you eat? In our diets we eat lots of plants. List the plants you have eaten in one week and display your list in an interesting way. This could be a poster, picture diary, sketches – it's up to you! Don't forget to show evidence in your Homework Book.	Science – Growing and looking after plants Make a cress head. You might want to look these up online as there are lots of different varieties; all are great! Please keep a log/diary of the growth progress. This can be stuck into your Homework Book. We would love to have the finished products in school before you give them a hair cut!	The Romans – Gods You are a Roman God and you need to persuade your people that you should be followed and worshipped. You will be asked to perform your argument to the class in a persuasive way. For example, you could be Jupiter, God of Sky and Thunder. Don't forget to show evidence in your Homework Book.
Science – Gardening Spend some time looking after your garden. Help someone at home to maintain your garden. This could include lots of different jobs. We would love to see photo evidence of it in your Homework Book. Can you name any of the plants in your garden?	Topic – Design a Roman helmet Research a variety of Roman helmets. It is now time for you to make your own. Think carefully about the materials and colours used. We would love to see them in school. Don't forget to show evidence in your Homework Book.	The Romans – Honey cakes The Romans liked to enjoy honey cakes. Look up a recipe, follow it, make it and enjoy. We would like to see photo evidence in your Homework book or even better, sample the cakes! A recipe is available in class if you need it.
The Romans – Gladiators Can you find out 5 or more interesting facts about the Roman Gladiators? Display these in a way that you wish. Don't forget to show evidence in your Homework Book. Fact sheet available in class if you need it.	The Romans – Diet We know that The Romans had an interesting diet. Can you find 6 or more Roman dishes that are not served today? Display this how you wish e.g. poster, use of computer or drawings. Don't forget to show evidence in your Homework Book.	The Romans – Toga catwalk Watch a video on how to tie a toga. Now it is time to make your own! Record yourself explaining how to tie a toga and why not add in a catwalk at the end? We would love to see the video. Bring it in using a USB stick.
