

Y5 Autumn 1 half-term learning grid		Learning Activity Subject Areas
		French	Humanities	Science
Categories of Learning	Talk, think, read, write	MON ÉCOLE: Write an imaginary interview between yourself and a boy/girl who goes to school in France. Give as much information as you can about the similarities and differences between French and English schools.	A ROYAL INTERVIEW Imagine you are a reporter interviewing a monarch from the past or present. Write a script or record a video of your interview. Don't forget to include questions about their life, duties and opinions. Also include possible answers showing what kind of monarch they were/are.	STANDING ON THE SHOULDERS OF GIANTS: Isaac Newton and Galileo Galilei are very important scientists – what can you find out about them? Research their lives and achievements. Be ready to tell your friends about it.
	Success Criteria	I can compare aspects of everyday life to a different culture to my own. I can recognise similarities/differences between the French and English school systems. I can present my work in an 'interview style' piece of writing (in English). I can present my homework with care and attention to detail.	I can ask thoughtful questions. I can give realistic or imaginative answers. I can use clear and expressive language.	I can research information about Newton and Galilei. I can identify why they are so important. I can record 5 facts about each of them on an A4 poster.
	The world around us	Petit Dejeuner: What do people in other countries eat for breakfast? What do people in France eat for breakfast? Compare breakfasts around the world to French traditional breakfasts.	MARVELLOUS MONARCHY Research the key monarchs in British History. Present your findings in a timeline.	STREAMLINED SPORTS: Find out how sports people reduce their air and water resistance when playing their sport. How do they make themselves more streamlined so they can go faster?
	Success Criteria	I can present information about an aspect of another culture and/or language. I can find out aspects of everyday life from the perspective of someone from another country. I can research facts using the Internet or books. I can present my findings in a fun and interesting way.	I can recall at least 6 monarchs. I can present my findings on a timeline, including dates. I can include one interesting fact about each monarch.	I can find out how sports people streamline their bodies or equipment to make themselves faster. I can record 2 ways in a diagram with labels and an explanation.
	Design and create	QU'EST-CE QUE C'EST?: Design, create and make a game to practise learning the French words for school subjects.	ROYAL PORTRAIT Create a drawing of yourself as a monarch. Think about all elements of your artwork: setting, colour, materials, clothing, hairstyle. You can display your work using a medium of your choice. Photography, painting, drawing, technology. We look forward to displaying your artwork.	MARBLE RUN FUN: Design and make a marble race. Stick different papers and cards across a ramp – try sandpaper, corrugated card, foil or tissue paper. Hold marbles at the top of the ramp, one marble for each type of paper. Release the marbles and see which one reaches the bottom of the ramp first!
	Success Criteria	I can select a range of French vocabulary to help with my game design. I can use a reference to support and ensure correct spellings and accuracy. I can plan and design a game to practise school subjects' vocabulary. I can select the correct materials for my game. I can create and make my game.	I can include royal features, e.g. crown, robe, thrown, sceptre. I can choose colours that reflect royalty. I can show personality and mood through my artwork I can think about background setting which brings my work to life.	I can design a marble run. I can decide on 3-5 different materials to test. I can time which one is the fastest. I can use my results to decide which materials was the best. I can write a conclusion explaining my results and what I have found out.
	Out and about	DANS MA SALLE DE CLASSE ON ETUDIE: Take photos and find or draw pictures of subjects we study in the classroom. Arrange these as a collage or a poster for display clearly labelling the items in French.	SIGNS OF MONARCHY Go out and explore your local area and look for signs of monarchy. This could include street names, statues or memorials, post boxes, buildings etc. Present your findings how you wish – it could be photographic, sketch, report, map etc.	UP IN THE AIR: Find out about different seeds that make use of air resistance to travel. Look at sycamore seeds or dandelion seeds. Record what you find using pictures/photos or video.
	Success Criteria	I can take photographs or draw/find pictures of different school subjects. I can select a range of vocabulary to label the drawings/pictures/photos on my collage, poster or PowerPoint. I can use a reference to help me label my work and ensure correct spellings and accuracy. I can present my work in a clear, interesting and informative way.	I can find signs of monarchy out and about. I can explain how these signs link to monarchy in detail. I can present my finding in a creative way.	I can identify different seeds that use air resistance. I can record this information in an exciting way.
	Let's perform	TEACHER FOR THE DAY: Practise and learn by heart some of the everyday classroom instructions and actions to go with them. Then have a go at being a French teacher for the day. Amuse-toi bien!	ROYAL DECREE Write a short royal decree (an official rule or announcement). Think about what you would announce to your peers and teachers at school and reasons why. You can hand in a written piece, perform your decree in class or send in a video. Begin with: By Royal order, I declare...	GREAT GRAVITY: Prepare a presentation all about gravity. Include information on what gravity is, how Isaac Newton recognised it, how it differs on different planets and how it gives objects their weight. Add pictures to make it even more interesting.
	Success Criteria	I can practise and learn by heart some everyday classroom instructions in French to be a Teacher for the Day. I can use expression and suit my tone and volume of voice to the meaning of words. I can speak with confidence and make eye contact with my audience. I have good pronunciation.	I can make a clear and creative decree which is easy to understand. I can explain my rule, why it is important and how it will help people. I can deliver my decree like a monarch, using appropriate phrases and tone.	I can identify what gravity is. I can include important facts about how it is different on different planets. I know the difference between weight and mass.
When giving in homework tasks please check that you have included a heading, e.g. Humanities – The World Around Us and the success criteria.				